

EXAMPLE SBA 8(a) Length of Time in Business Waiver Request

Please note: This document is an example only and not a template. Please use this document as a model or an inspiration for your own original writing but do not copy it exactly because the Small Business Administration (SBA) will be able to quickly discern whether or not you duplicated this document or independently developed a waiver on your own. You can follow the structure and sequence of this document and address the same topics as in this document, but please compose your own original sentences and descriptions using your own words to ensure the SBA accepts your waiver.

ACME LLC

8(a) Length of Time in Business Waiver Request

1. The individual or individuals upon whom eligibility is based must have substantial business management experience.

Mr. Ryan B. Washington is the socially and economically disadvantaged business owner upon whom SBA 8(a) eligibility is based.

Mr. Washington is a management consultant and cost estimator who possesses more than 16 years of government acquisition experience and more than 13 years of cost analysis experience supporting the US Navy and Marine Corps, US Army, US Coast Guard, Federal Aviation Administration, Department of Homeland Security, Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA), and commercial customers.

Mr. Washington has consistently increased his personal income and company revenues since 1998 through a combination of independent consulting contracts and occasional employment with large corporations that provided him with ..... (The waiver continues for 7 more pages)